

I am very upset that the NAB is trying to stifle competition. There is no way that XM traffic and weather should be restricted. I thought that this government supported free competition in the marketplace. I am very disappointed that Congressmen Pickering and Green are attempting to stifle satellite radio in this area.